Super Power Program

Individual Superhero Program

Overview

Super Power Programs offer unique journeys through the wonderment and expansion of our internal and external worlds. The programs guide individuals and couples through the Redesign Your Reality™ training series and provide support as they implement mind-bending concepts into their existence. The programs use a proprietary training system that combines teaching, coaching, self-guidance and introspection in a unique multi-support environment.

The sessions are personalized and private, between you and our Coaching Team. The team consists of coaches who work collaboratively to guide and support you as you step into versions of yourself you've only dreamt of and worlds you can't yet fathom.

Based on over 25 years of diving into and through the human psyche, Super Power Programs incorporate concepts from top-level counterintelligence training, Jungian psychology, graduate-level developmental and critical theory, neuro-linguistic programming, advanced social engineering, U.S. Department of Defense master training, and a multiverse of infinite wisdom. On the physical plane, the techniques have been taught to thousands of seekers in academia, government, entrepreneurship, military, corporate and around the globe.

Payment Terms

The tuition payment for this program is $1000/monthly. The program requires a six-month commitment. After that six month period payments continue until the program is canceled or changed.

Cancellation Policy

Once the initial six-month requirement is met, the program can be canceled any time by submitting a 30-day cancellation notice to programs@superpowerexperts.com.

While we don't anticipate this occurring, if, at any time, Tonya, your guide or any of the other coaches identifies that continuing in the program may be harmful to you or to others, the Coaches Team will assess the situation. If their assessment concurs then Super Power Experts (SPE) reserves the right to terminate the program. No refunds, partial or whole, will be given. However, in the case of termination during the required six-month period, SPE will forgive the remaining payments.

Missed Payments

If a payment is missed, the program automatically pauses, this includes access to the course material and scheduled sessions. Programs can be paused for a single courtesy two-week period. If payments are not resumed promptly, the program will be canceled and you will be billed for the remaining program payments. If you anticipate a financial situation that may interrupt your program, please communicate with us prior to missing a payment via programs@superpowerexperts.com.

What to Expect

Each customized journey begins with Founder and Executive Director Tonya Dawn Recla. In the first two sessions, Tonya identifies your predisposed superpowers and personal intuitive strategy and begins fleshing out your unique superpowers. If couples journey together, they receive this information for each individual and the relationship itself.

At the end of those sessions, Tonya identifies the guide who will walk you through the course material. Once she connects you with your guide, your journey begins. The guide works directly with Tonya to craft a unique program suited for your unique evolution. Along the journey, you meet other guides and coaches who speak to different aspects of you, allowing for a rich and robust conversation about the complexities and wholeness of YOU.

Note: If you're in a committed partnership now and want to explore a couples program instead of an individual one, please send an email immediately to programs@superpowerprograms.com.

A Note from Tonya Dawn Recla, Executive Director

This program may include delving into issues around deeply held beliefs, patterns of behavior, ethics, morals, religious teachings, etc. No topic is off-limits and nothing is too personal in the quest for personal power, vibrational attunement, and superpowers.

Our philosophy is that there are no victims in the spiritual realm and all life experiences are manifested by the individuals living them. We strongly recommend that you monitor your own personal limits and boundaries.
